BIOGRAPHY

Dr. Tori Brown, author, entrepreneur, consultant, and real estate developer is a notable co-founder of Fresh Community Development Inc, a non-profit organization dedicated to providing housing solutions for aspiring entrepreneurs. She also is a founder of Fresh Digital Expressions (formally known as Fresh Digital Inc), a tech startup that focuses on building mobile applications and platforms using Augmented Reality (AR) technology.

Dr. Brown, the youngest of three siblings, displayed an early aptitude for learning. She attended the Saginaw Arts and Sciences Academy, a learning institution for the gifted, where she pursued studies in mathematics, science, and later delved into creative writing. Her innate passion for reading and writing became evident at an astonishingly young age. By the tender age of 4, she was already immersed in books, and by 7, she was crafting her own literary works. Her mother often handed her a composition book and a pen, keeping her engaged as she filled those pages with intricate blueprints of buildings and community centers.

Dr. Tori Brown's academic journey has been nothing short of exceptional. She holds an AA in psychology and a BA degree in both psychology and African-American studies. Her dedication to education propelled her to achieve two master's degrees. One in Community Counseling and another in school counseling and education, followed by a Ph.D. in psychology.

Dr. Brown has worked with established and up-and-coming sports, media, and entertainment brands for more than 20 years. Her knowledge has been crucial in developing cutting-edge company plans and strategies that provide unrestricted access to business success. Professional athletes, entertainers, record label executives, and their families have all been among her unique clientele. Her greatest mission and most memorable experiences have been the work she has done to help multiple community figures create profitable businesses in real estate.

BIOGRAPHY contd

Doc, as known by her community, is combining her life experiences with the plethora of knowledge and abilities she acquired during her incredible journey. Dr. Brown has committed her life to a meaningful cause of self-awareness and empowerment. Her goal is to enable those who fall below the poverty line to launch and expand successful real estate businesses, thereby improving their financial outcome and improving the quality of their lives.
